

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1891.

NO. 46

HUSTONVILLE.

—James Harper sold a fancy male last week for $125.

—What has become of your versatile Crab Orchard scribe? We miss his excellent lucubrations.

—Our fox-hunters got back from Dripping Springs Saturday evening after a delightful time with their Gairard and Madison brethren, of whose hospitality they are extravagant.

—Mr. G. C. Clayton, just over the Casey border, reports a gallinaceous prodigy in a three-months-old pullet, which set up house-keeping latter part of July. Poultry fanciers can rely upon Mr. Clayton's veracity and accuracy, paradoxical as is his statement.

—The stock premiums offered by Danville Fair Association were too meager to draw a large exhibit from our vicinity. Many stables in which are wearers of the blue didn't have a representative. Owners and drivers thought it a good time to rest up and prepare for richer fields.

—There has not been much election talk since last Tuesday's papers were distributed. Some of our incumbents who opposed the new constitution derive some comfort from the reflection that their lease is extended a year by the instrument which seems to have met the approval of a majority.

—Dr. Brown is especially proud of a recent testimony from fair hands. On dropping into his den after an exhaustive drive one day last week he was startled momentarily by sight of a large hamper filled and heaped with canned fruits, jams, preserves, and luscious apples, peaches, pears, and plums.

—Cale Brown spent last week at and about Liberty, professing visiting his mother. Thompson Cooper was up last Saturday and Sunday. He brought the family as he is not campaigning now. Jimmie Cook ran up from the Falls last Saturday and stayed over till Monday. He says fishing is still splendid. He superintended weighing a "yaller cat" caught a few days ago which balanced at an honest 50 pounds. George Weatherford came by from Danville Fair and accompanied Jimmie Cook to the Falls for a week's good feasting and sleep. Jim Harper and Jim Reid are at Russell Springs taking a rest before beginning fall farm-work. Prof. M. G. Thomson and wife were called home from Russell Springs by the illness of their little daughter. Mrs. Sophie Carpenter, of Somerset, has been spending a few days with her parents and brother. She goes to Green Briar this week accompanied by her mother and Mrs. J. B. Green. Mrs. Dr. Lee Hoffman, of Lexington, is with her parents. Mrs. S. G. Dyer, accompanied by brother and Millard Allen, went to the Falls last week. Miss Dollie Williams will teach at Nicholasville the ensuing year. Her excellence as a teacher insures a remunerative salary.

"A fellow went into a St. Paul bar-room and ordered a drink of whisky. After pouring out what would have been enough for two ordinary drinks and tossing it off without winking, he said: 'Has ducky been here?' 'Don't know him,' said the barkeeper. 'What, don't know short-legged ducky?' was the reply, 'you must be mistaken. He walks this way.' The bibulous gentleman turned in his toes, spread his knees far apart and waddled toward the swinging doors, through which he disappeared with great rapidity. The barkeeper gasped, picked up a bung starter, and rushed to the door in time to see ducky's friend vanishing up the street. He started to swear, but gave up the attempt, the outburst at his command being inadequate to express his indignation, returned to the bar and took a big drink."

One of the most frequent complaints among canaries is asthma. This disease is easily cured if taken hold of at once. The bird dealers sell a powder that is mixed in the water the birds are given to drink, and there is also a bird tonic which is good for all the ills that bird flesh is heir to. When a bird has the asthma the symptoms are a heaviness of breathing at night. Canaries with this complaint have been known to breathe like human beings.

Paris is laughing over a joke about an American inventor who is said to have patented an electric corset that is to bring about the reign of morality at once. If one of these articles is pressed by a lover's arm it at once emits a shriek like the whistle of a railway engine, and the inventor claims that he has already married three of his daughters, owing to the publicity thus thrust upon a backward lover.

"Well, Moses, how many of those sleeve protector hat you sold already?" "I don't sell nothings yet already dis morning. Effery dime I holler ondt 'live cent a pair!' dose dago across yonder yells 'here dey are! Dree pears for five cents!' and my pizness is ruined."

Maple Shade Stock Farm.
Mr. E. P. Faulkner, of Danville, remarks: "I used your trial box of Quinn's Ointment and took off a curb. Have since used two bottles. It is very satisfactory." Testimonials of this character are surely convincing evidence.

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—Mrs. Elma Browne, of Wasiota, is visiting Miss Ada Sulist at Mayor S. B. Fishman's. Prof. J. M. Hubbard, of the Stanford Female College, was here Tuesday in the interest of his school.

—In reference to the 1. J.'s editorial regarding Maj. Wood's visit to this place it is a fact that no man can dispute, that he was entertained by pro constitution democrats and mugwump republicans and such party men as Hon. John H. Wilson, Col. Clark and Judge Tinsley were sincerely able to get to see him, and at one time Mr. Wilson called at Maj. Wood's room he found him busily engaged with three demagogues, who were relating to him how the rejection of the constitution had been agitated in this county, and Mr. Wilson was denied a personal chat with the major just then.

—The first representation that I ever saw of a republican rooster was produced in last week's issue of the Barbourville News. I thought that this denunciation of birds belonged to the democracy and I have never seen them used to represent the joy over a victory other than by this last named party; in fact, I think they properly belong to the democratic party and the party's property should not be infringed on in such manner. Now, my honorable judgment upon this rooster is that the News office did not contain a cent of an eagle, and the Newsman was so bent on using some kind of a bird to more forcibly express his joy over the adoption of the constitution that he took up the emblem of the democratic party to do so, and yet he says "the adoption of the new constitution is due to Hon. A. E. Wood and the republican party."

—The occasion of the social party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Cook, last Thursday night, in honor of Miss Annie Lee Fishman, is one of the most pleasant of the season. Barbourville's society was presented in its best colors and there were quite a number of visiting ladies present, who added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Among them were Miss Mamie Young, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Gertrude Padon, of Georgetown, and Miss Roberta Chinn, of Lexington. Those who were not so accustomed to the terpsichorean revel amused themselves around tables with games of parcheesi, muggins, cards, etc., while a number of young ladies and a few gentlemen, among the former were Misses Ella Tinsley, Mamie Young, Mabel Barnside, Anne Fishman, Gertrude Padon, Maudie England, Hallie Ballard and Kate Colton, tripped the light fantastic to their hearts content, which seemed only to be realized after the "wee sma'" hours had announced their arrival. Shortly after this time around street corners and through dusty lanes were heard chatting good humoredly merry lads and lassies on their way "to home."

Bothering Questions.

If a goose weighs 10 pounds and half its own weight, what is the weight of the goose?

Many persons have undoubtedly been tempted to answer 15 pounds, when the correct answer, of course, is 20 pounds, as they discover after giving the problem a little thought. An exceedingly wise man has sometimes been caught by a very simple question of this sort. The following for example.

How many days would it take to cut up a piece of cloth 50 yards long, one yard being cut off every day?

Or this:
A snail climbing up a post 20 feet high ascends five feet every day and slips down four feet every night. How long will it take the snail to reach the top of the post?

These are simple questions in arithmetic, and yet, how many persons would answer 50 days, instead of 49 to the first one, and 20 instead of 19 to the last one. It is perhaps scarcely necessary to point out that the snail would gain one foot a day for fifteen days, and on the fifth day reach the top of the pole, and there, of course, remain.

THANKS, BRO. MARSH.—While we did not look at the constitutional question through the same spectacles as our neighbor, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, nevertheless we can heartily congratulate our friend on reaping the fruit of his excellent editorial work in having the county of Lincoln endorse his view of the case. It is a splendid tribute to him as a journalist and an evidence of the influence of a well-conducted local newspaper in shaping opinion on a question of public policy about which people have honest and conscientious convictions of difference. —LANCASTER RECORD.

Mamma.—"You naughty girl! You've eaten every cookie there was in the plate. I told you you might have three." Little Edith—"Yes, but you didn't tell me which three. So I had to eat all to be sure to get the right ones."—Boston Transcript.

Jake Simpson.—"Your father thinks I am a fast young man." "Cora Bellows (yawning).—"I don't see how he could."—New York Herald.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—W. M. McAfee sold Hennes to G. C. Givens at $4.75.

—W. H. Prewitt bought of William Tewney, of Boyle, 16 3-year-old cattle at 3 cents.

—M. O. Vandever sold the 40 nice cows advertised in this paper to Thompson at $3.75.

—W. H. Bush bought of Dr. Drake for September delivery 52 fat cattle at 52 cents.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

—B. F. Hayden bought of W. A. Hall a nice bunch of feeding cattle at a little over $27 a head. They weigh about 900. —J. L. Cogar bought 50,000 pounds of tobacco in the Stamping Ground district, Scott county, last week, at 5 to 11c.—Midway Clipper.

—A. B. Bonta has realized $2,000 from his sheep the past year, $1,000 from the lambs and $100 from the wool. This is the sort of industry that is being ruined by the depredations of worthless curs.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—The business branch of the Kansas alliance has completed arrangements to handle three-fourths of the 50,000,000 bushels of the present wheat crop of that State, and advance 75 per cent. of its market value to the farmers.

—Anderson Carr's Nancy Carr trotted second in the stake for three-year-olds at Danville. Crit Davis' Andy Cutler won in 2:29 and 2:30. J. E. Harris took the premium on his mare again, and E. D. Kennedy got the blue in the walking rung.

—J. P. Crow's Alex. C. by Belmont Chief won the yearling race at the Columbia fair in two straight heats. The distance was of a mile and he trotted the first in 2:19 and the second in 2:15. The first half of the last heat was trotted in 1:02 and the half mile was made in 1:21.

—Yesterday was not a lively court day, but a good deal of trading was indulged in in a small way. T. W. Bottens reports one lot of 500-pound rough steers brought $8.65; Jersey cows $24; 30 ewes $2.50 per head; lot 100-pound heifers $9.00; lot steers $13.00; pig horses $75; small lot steers $14.00; 1 mule $90. Crowd small.

—Sunol will attempt to beat the trotting record at a California fair this week. She has her own record of 2:04, made in her three-year-old form. She also has to face the record by Maud S. of 2:08. Sunol has a half-mile record of 1:02, which is a 2:05 gait, but it does not follow that she or any other horse will ever be able to make a full mile in that time.

—Tate & Outen bought the past week 60 head of sheep from Harve Painter at $2.50 and 91 head from Tom Rankin at $2.00. The peach crop of this section is very fine this season, the fruit being large, perfect and delicious generally. Immense quantities are being shipped and the prices realized are about $1 per bushel. This also is the local retail price. —Somerset Reporter.

—Wheat has been coming into Lancaster in small installments, at 75c per bushel. The complaint about sunt continues and a very material injury to the crop has resulted. Our farmers ought to get an entirely new seed wheat, and try to stamp out sunt. It will pay to do so. W. S. and R. A. Beasley weighed on last Friday the splendid bunch of export cattle sold last January at 5c to Simon Wieth, for Goldsmith. There were 79 head, and the average was 1,650 lbs. They were fed but little corn, and were in fine condition for shipping.—Record.

—Proctor Knott, the great race horse, died Friday in his stable at Saratoga. He had been critically ill of catarrhal fever and his death was not a surprise. In his two-year-old form Proctor Knott won $75,000, and is the only horse that ever won the Junior Champion Stakes and the Futurity. Sam Bryant and the Sroogins Bros. bought him when a colt for $450 and at the auction sale when Bryant and the Sroogins dissolved the Sroogins' bought him for $17,500. While Proctor Knott was a general favorite and was always backed, his losses came at inopportune times and a great deal of money has been lost on him.

JUDGE J. M. UNTHANK. of Pineville who was red-hot against the new constitution, writes as follows to Hon. R. C. Warren:

Harlan blacked the constitutional eye to the tune of 700 and cast more votes for John Young Brown than any other democrat who ever asked for these people's votes. I have changed my figures since yesterday and now I want to keep my office in Pineville, have a farm in Lincoln, summer resorts in Boone and Estill, but I must have a last resting place, and will crawl into my popular box in Harlan.

"Are you ready, Emma?" John called. "Yes, I'll be there in a minute; I've only my bonnet to put on."

"All right. I'll have time to shave before we go."

"I have such an indulgent husband," said little Mrs. Doll. "Yes, so George says," responded Mrs. Spiteful. "Sometimes indulges too much, doesn't he?" —Exchange.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Rice & Woods are in town with a lot of Indian ponies, which they intend to dispose of here on county court day, Monday.

—Capt. Jack McGee, architect and builder, has just about completed the addition to Mrs. Bettie Faris' residence, which will be one of the handsomest residences in London.

—The new race-track at the fair ground is a half-mile long and pronounced by the several horsemen who have seen it to be as good as any in the State. A big time is expected at our fair.

—Mr. A. B. Dyer, editor of the Mountain Echo, and Walker, youngest son of Tom Province, are down with typhoid fever. Mr. Ford is getting along well, and the many friends of the others are hopeful and anxious for them.

—The London cornet band will play for the Barbourville Fair on September 31 and 1st, notwithstanding that Barbourville has two bands. The London band has quite a reputation in this section and at all "big" occasions are used everywhere.

—Mr. Fred Hugi has received an appointment as one of the World's Fair architects and superintendents. The salary is $1,500 a year, which expires at the end of 12 months. Fred can learn a huge number of our carpenters many things about building and then not tell all he knows. He and his son, Herman, are now in Pineville finishing up the city hall.

—"Big" Andy Rice, of your county, is in town. Mr. Harper, of Somerset, a soldier, has established himself in Mrs. Lucy Williams' old store, back of her present building. H. Koelliker is a new shoemaker just begun business in town. Perman Bros. have opened up a new general merchandise business in the old Faris & Co. building. Dr. Joe Young and bride have gone to Raccoon on a visit to Joe's father. Misses Lou McKee and Kittie Jackson, accompanied by Mr. W. B. Neild and James Boring to "Ely Dale," Knox county, on a pleasure trip Saturday.

LANCASTER.—Green Turner, charged with killing his mule, Jack Turner, at Middleboro three years ago, was arrested here Friday by Sheriff Robinson and Chief of Police Hamilton. While under guard at the Miller Hotel at night he made his escape and has not yet been recaptured. Turner forfeited a bond of $5,000 to appear in the circuit court at Pineville Tuesday and his arrest was an important one. The trial of a suit for forcible entry and detainer, made by two school trustees of the Lancaster colored district against Miss Mattie Morgan, who began the school as early as 4 o'clock was held Friday. The two trustees wanted Miss Josie Crawford to teach the school, and it was in her interest that they prosecuted the suit. All the lawyers were on one side or the other and the trial drew a large crowd to the courthouse to hear the arguments. The jury found for Miss Morgan. It is rumored that Miss Crawford paid one of the trustees $10 for his vote, and that, last year, Miss Morgan, who was promised the school this session, gave to the school building fund $135. The case caused a great deal of comment, but will not be taken to higher courts as was first supposed.

GREEN BRIAR SPRINGS.

—Our house is now comfortably full, but as a dozen or so are to leave on Wednesday we will have some of our best rooms ready for new arrivals. Among our guests are Dr. Wm. Cheatman and family, of Louisville, and chief-of-police, General Taylor, and family, of the same city, who are spending the summer here.

Our guests go over and visit Crab Orchard Springs occasionally and the next day the Courier-Journal report them as spending the summer at C. O. Springs. Well, that's all right, we can stand it if they can, as the public has about caught on to it. The probability is that September will one of the best months of year this season and as I have very foolishly advertised board in my circulars at $5 per week for September it will have to stand, and every person who visits us in that month will get the benefit of that low rate.

Respectfully, D. G. SLAUGHTER.

P. S.—We have three doctors' families with us this summer. D. G. S.

Editor Walton defeated the new constitution in Lincoln county, but he must feel pretty lonesome now, as Lincoln and Estill are about the only counties in the State that went against the new constitution.—Somerset Reporter.

We are obliged for the compliment, but we are not lonesome by any means. Among those who opposed the constitution are men of the highest standing in both parties and we have the satisfaction of feeling that we were and are still in good company.

STANFORD, KY., - AUGUST 11, 1921

Gov. Brown, Your Attention, Please.

The New Constitution provides in Sec. 254 that upon its ratification by the people, the governor shall appoint three persons, learned in the law, who shall revise the statute laws and prepare amendments thereto in order that they shall conform to and effectuate the constitution, such revision and amendments to be submitted to the general assembly for its adoption or rejection. A number of learned and distinguished lawyers has been suggested for the commission and without consulting the gentleman and with no knowledge whatever of his wishes in the matter, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, satisfied as are all who know him of his eminent fitness for the task, begs leave likewise to suggest one to Gov. Brown—that of our big bodied, big brained, and honored citizen, Col. William Gatewood Welch. Possessing a thorough knowledge of law and the ability to write pure English, the statutes under his pen would not be marred by the frequent breaks of grammar and awkwardness of construction which unfortunately characterize many of those now in force, but would be given a clearness of expression and a terseness of language as to admit of no doubt as to their meaning. The position is one of which any lawyer would be proud and in suggesting the name of Col. Welch we do so with the absolute assurance from those capable of judging that he is the peer of any lawyer in Kentucky and fitted in every respect to fill it with credit to himself and satisfaction to the State.

THE G. A. R. meeting, at Detroit, decided to rescind the order granting post charters to colored troops, and hereafter the negro will be as big a man in the G. A. R. as his white brother. This is going to create much kicking in the South, but as it is a question of pensions and policy it will end in kicking. The bold soldier boys evinced throughout the entire encampment that they were out for the stuff by making further demands on the treasury. They now want in addition to their pensions $2 a day for the period each served in the Southern prisons and expense of transportation home. As it is notorious that many of the so-called soldiers sought to be captured and imprisoned in preference to fighting it can easily be seen how unjust such demands are and how insatiable the G. A. R. is. Congress should turn a deaf ear to such legalized robbery of honest citizens, but it will not as long as the body stands ready with its vote to crush any member who dares stand up for those who have the burden to bear.

LITTLE PAUL THOMPSON, who was not appointed by President Cleveland to be commissioner of internal revenue, will never forgive him as long as he lives. The recent election gave him another chance to bark at his heels. Gorman, he says, is the coming man. "Cleveland is not in it. He has been weighed in the balance in Kentucky and found wanting, and so he will be in every other State." We should like to have a specification as to what he has been found wanting in. Surely Kentucky has no quarrel against Mr. Cleveland for not giving Mr. Thompson an office, or for any other cause. At least the masses have nothing but praise for him, which snubbed senators, congressmen and office-seekers can find out by going among them.

People are flocking from this and other countries to Treves in Rhenish Prussia, the oldest municipality in Germany, to witness the exhibition of Jesus' coat, spoken of in John 19:23 and 24, which is claimed to have been discovered there. It is without seam and woven from the top throughout, but that doesn't signify that it was Jesus' coat. The story is about on a par with that sent out from Rome that a figure of the Saviour was seen to wink its eye. Verily business must be dull in that part of the world.

It is telegraphed from the Massachusetts retreat where Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland are living an idyllic existence, that her mother and aunt are already on hand in expectation of an event that will bring joy to the household and congratulation to the ex-president from all over the country. The uncrowned queen of American womanhood will always be an object of interest to loving subjects who now wish her a safe deliverance and a happy issue.

The University at Swanton, Tenn., conferred the degree of LL. D. on Hon. Henry Watterson, which in his case can not stand for what the school boys thought it did, long-legged devil, for he is considerably short in the stride, and far from being a devil, though he frequently gets between him and the deep blue sea.

The patent office is the only self supporting establishment belonging to the government at Washington. It granted 29,307 of the 39,694 applications for patents during the last fiscal year and cleared by it over $150,000.

The Bligney Ice Machine Co., Cincinnati, has failed for $225,000.

R. L. MARIMON has bought out his partner, W. T. Ewing, in the Harrodsburg Sayings, and will hereafter hold a lone hand. Mr. Ewing resumes the practice of law.

Wood's majority in Whitley was only 30, less than half the republican majority. The constitution only carried by 58.

Harvey Myers, of Covington, T. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, and W. H. Moore, of Harrison county, are in the field for speaker of the next House.

Harlan gave 732 majority against the constitution. Besides it and Lincoln, Boone, Estill, Nicholas, Cumberland, Russell, and Breathitt gave majorities against that instrument so far as heard from.

Madison gave Wood a majority of seven, but D. W. Tribble, democrat, pulled through for the legislature by two. This is pretty close for Durrett, but it is as good as a thousand so far as his right to the office is concerned.

NEWSY NOTES.

Jerome A. Sparks, a republican politician and stock dealer of Jessamine, has failed for $12,000.

A tremendous rain and hail storm destroyed nearly 4,000 acres of standing grain near Crookston, Minn.

During the last fiscal year the employees of the Railway Mail Service made only one error for each 4,193 pieces handled.

James Thoroughgood was not as thorough-bad as he seemed to have been. He was hung at Dover, Del., for rape Friday, but died protesting his innocence.

Enos Howard, one of the Harlan county murderers awaiting trial at Williamsburg, cut his throat with a razor in his cell in the Whitley county jail and will die.

Four negro prisoners, charged with incendiarism, were taken by a mob from the officers in Henry county, Ala., near the Florida State line, bound and thrown into the river.

A dispatch from Somerset says the house of Frank Barker, worth $1,500, was destroyed there by fire. Many other houses would have been destroyed had it not been for the water works.

Gov. Fleming, of Florida, has refused to issue a certificate of election as United States senator to Wilkinson Call, on the ground that a quorum of the State senate did not join the house in the election.

Father Quay, a Catholic priest at Seattle, Wash., was tarred and feathered by the irate citizens for enticing children of both sexes to his room and practicing various forms of immorality after filling them with liquor.

A robber entered the bank at Columbus Grove, O., and after shooting the cashier and killing a by-stander, escaped with $1,500, saying as he left, "I'm a second Jesse James." He was pursued by the citizens and shot to death.

The Masonic Savings Bank of Louisville, suspended Saturday and assigned to the Germania Safety Vault and Trust Co. It has been in hard lines for some time and the failure was not unexpected. Its officers claim that it will pay out in full.

Ex-Senator Ingalls, in an address in Georgia, declared that the enfranchisement of the negro was a mistake, and that the Northern people, if they had been in the shoes of the Southern whites, would have fought the Force bill just as the South did.

President A. A. Arthur has returned from London to Middlesboro and says that the developments now under way would be continued with even more vigor than in the past, and that the mineral development of coal and iron especially, would be pushed for all it is worth.

The St. Louis express on the West Shore road collided with a freight train near Port Byron, N. Y. Eleven persons were killed and a number of others were badly hurt. The victims are mostly Italians who were riding in the smoking car. The freight train was running on the schedule of the express.

Some writers, not learned in the law, fancy that the new Kentucky constitution forbids lotteries. So did the old one; but the court of appeals sustained them as vested rights. The court of appeals will be engaged, for the rest of this century, in trying to find out what the new constitution means.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The fishy story is telegraphed from Paris that a balloon passed over that section Friday from which there was dropped a bottle in which was a note in French, which being translated, read that the airship had left Paris, France, May 11, with four persons on a voyage to last three years, in the interest of the French Topographical Society.

Captain John Palmer, the new commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., was born on Staten Island, March 22, 1842, and has a splendid war record. He enlisted in the 91st New York Volunteers, September 1, 1861, and was constantly with that regiment until it was mustered out July 3, 1865, taking part in all its engagements. He was seriously injured at the battle of Five Forks, in the combined charge of cavalry and infantry. He has followed fresco painting since the war.

To-day the great State of Texas holds an election which involves five proposed amendments to her constitution. The first seeks to regulate her rate of interest and to provide a fair usury law. The second seeks to furnish a registration law, with all modern improvements, hot and cold. The third has for its ostensible object the improvement of the common schools. The fourth relates to local option. The fifth seeks to create intermediate courts of appeal.

The people's party in Ohio nominated John Seitz, of Seneca, a former greenbacker, for Governor. The platform calls for woman suffrage, the suppression of bucket-shops, election of United States senators by direct popular vote, forfeiture of the Standard Oil Company's charter, compulsory education and free school-books, State control of the liquor traffic, government loans to individuals, free silver coinage, income taxation, abolition of National banks, government ownership of transportation lines, plenty of greenbacks, and the devil knows what all.

Teachers' Institute.

The twelfth annual session of the Lincoln County Teachers' Institute convened at 10:45 A. M., at the court house yesterday. Out of the 60 odd teachers in the county all but about half dozen were present. It was apparent on looking over the body that the majority of those mind-trainers are women. After the selection of Mr. R. Lee Davis as secretary of the Institute, the exercises were opened by Supt. W. F. McClary, who made some appropriate introductory remarks, after which a feeling prayer was offered up by W. H. Meachum, Prof. S. J. Pulliam, of Georgetown College, who conducted the institute two years ago, was then introduced by Supt. McClary as instructor, and that gentleman proceeded to deliver his opening address, which was replete with stimulating and elevating advice to the teachers concerning the importance of their profession and the urgent reforms needed in the system. A committee on program, consisting of Prof. J. W. Smith, Miss May Kay and Mrs. J. F. Gover was next selected, and after mature deliberations drafted the following program for the week's exercise:

We see by the Louisville Times of the 7th inst. that our illustrious townsman, Col. J. Peter Chandler, is a candidate for lookkeeper of the next General Assembly. If big body, big head, big heart, and big feet play any part in the contest, the Lincoln county entry is sure to get there with all four legs off the ground and tail over the dash board!

It was rumored here Friday that our pretty and captivating depot agent, Mrs. J. A. Newland, who a few days ago left for the moonbunnies to visit friends, had been taken in tow by a handsome and mottled water of that Eldorado section, and conducted to the lymanial altar. The report, however, was without foundation, but if J. Peter Chandler becomes lookkeeper of the next Legislature, such a climax is possible.

One intelligent (?) voter here election day on being asked at the polls if he was "for or against the new constitution," replied by asking "who is running for the darn thing?" We suggest that he be put in the same boat with our friend, Lewis Dishon, who on being apprised of the result of the election next day said that he guessed several other States besides Kentucky went for the constitution. They're a pretty pair of freemen to be sure.

Two Germans answering to the names of Mores and Norman Adlstein were arrested here Saturday and tried before Squire Blankenship on a charge of stealing an old mill boiler from Jim Melvin and John Stringer. The Adlsteins are from Louisville, and, along with a car load of scrap iron which they bought in this locality and shipped to that city last week, was the aforesaid mill boiler, which they seem to have bought from somebody to whom it did not belong. They were held in $500 bond and Patent Moore at whose house they were stopping agreed to hold their horse and wagon until the bond was fixed up. Saturday night, however, the wily Thoms forced the lock of Moore's stable, eased out their "rig" and aided by the darkness of the night, skipped to a more hospitable court.

While returning home from town Monday evening, Mr. Warry Wallin met with an accident which came near costing him some broken bones. He was riding his brother's race horse, "Capt. Welch," and a shower coming up he hastily hoisted his umbrella, when the animal, not accustomed to that sort of thing, feteled a sudden plunge and launched Mr. Wallin some 15 feet distant, bruising his chest, skinning his hands and arms and knocking daylight out of him for awhile. Fortunately his foot was extricated from the stirrup, or he would have been dragged to death by the frightened equine. He was picked up by his father a quarter of an hour afterwards and Saturday was able to be upon the street.

Mrs. Dr. Black, of Madison county, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. S. Fish, Misses Nannie and Bettie Edmonston went to Stanford Thursday to be the guests of Miss Lizzie Menefee for several days. Mrs. Lillie Rice, who was Miss Lillie Lytes, at one time assistant teacher in the High School here, arrived this week, and is the guest of the Misses Stuart, on Springs avenue. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reel, Jr., accompanied by their interesting children, Fannie, Kate and Jim, left Thursday last for a month's visit to relatives and friends in Eastern Kentucky. Mrs. Mollie Collier, of Middlesboro, Mrs. McGill and handsome daughter, Miss Lillie, of Louisville, are with Mrs. W. P. Tate, enjoying the gayeties of C. O. summer life. Mr. Elisha Bullock, one of Rockcastle's substantial farmers, is down to see his kinsman, Capt. C. A. Middleton. Mrs. Henry Arnold, of Lancaster, came over in her fine "turn out" and spent Sunday with Mrs. J. S. Fish. S. D. Harbin, who for months has been making headquarters at Dillon's, is visiting the home folks here and huzzing the praises of his erstwhile mountain home, which he says is in the very heart of Go!P's country. Mr. Henry Magee has gone to Pineville. Miss Maggie Middleton spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Lacie Lynn. Miss Birdie Dinson, a handsome brunette of the Lone Star State, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. E. Perkins.

Messrs. G. L. WILKES, the Louisville Times sparkling correspondent, and D. M. Downum, the bright genius of the Woodford Sun, are enjoying the smiles of the belles at Crab Orchard.
SPEAKING of the Louisville debutants the Truth says of the little beauty now visiting here: "Miss Mary Clay Thompson is a blonde of perfect type, altogether pretty and inexpressibly prepossessing."

A VERY hot wave has been spending itself on us for the last few days, sending the mercury up Sunday to 94°. Yesterday there was a breeze, which somewhat relieved the intense heat of the sun's rays. The signal service dispatch yesterday read "Continued warm and fair. Slightly cooler in Northern Kentucky by Tuesday."

This city council of Middlesboro is kicking because it has to bury so many paupers. From one meeting to the next there were nine, and it was suggested that paupers from all over the country go there to die. The so-called Magic City may be a very good place to die in, but a very few people think now it is much of a place to live in.
DOORKEEPER.—Jordan Peter Chandler, of Crab Orchard, announces himself a candidate for doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, subject to the democratic caucus, and adds that he had rather have that position than dwell in the tents of wickedness. Pete is a genius and if chosen he will make a most dignified and original doorkeeper. It is hoped that his ambition will be gratified.
Mr. W. C. LEWIS was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a bonfire on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we commend his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.
BASE BALLS.—Special Reporter E. W. Rochester furnishes the following. The game of ball Saturday afternoon between the third nine of Stanford and the Crab Orchard resulted in an overwhelming defeat for the visitors. The C. O.'s were never in the game and received a drubbing they are not likely to soon forget. They owe their defeat to their miserable fielding and inability to hit Rowan Sunday, who had them at his mercy. Sibald caught an excellent game, and all of the home boys acquitted themselves creditably. The score stood 31 to 11 in their favor. Batteries, Sandley and Sibald, McGee and McGee. Base hits, Stanford 22; Crab Orchard 7. Errors, Stanford 11; Crab Orchard 24. Time, 1:10, McAnally.

By his arrival at Somerset, Thomas B. Copepage, who was arrested in Mississippi for the seduction of Miss Dick, promptly gave bail with O. H. Waddle, Esq., bondsman. He denies the charge and says he will be able to put a different light on the matter at the trial than was sworn to in the affidavit.
LAWYER.—Copepage was acquitted at the exaominig trial, though Miss Dick swore that the defendant had seduced her, by promise of money and clothing, to go with him to a studio, and he then and there accomplished his purpose. Afterward he persuaded her to accompany him to the house of Lettie DeWitt, where they remained some time, and here she became enceinte by him. Judge Denton held that the offense was not seduction, under the meaning of the statute and discharged the defendant.

The Danville fair was a grand success and the directors have a right to feel that they have done their work well. The frots were good from beginning to end and in the ring there were never less than three, and sometimes as many as 15 contestants. On Friday probably the largest crowd ever assembled there was present and all were enlogistic of the success of the association. Wood Green captured the blue tie in the platon pony ring against a field of seven, while R. B. & E. P. Woods took the premium on their fine milk colt. The 2:28 trot was easily won by Ready Boy, who lowered his record to 2:24. Billy Wilkes was his principal contestant. Emma T. was the favorite in the 2:32 class, and after losing a couple of heats, won three straights, while Proem got second money.

Sole agents for Woodbridge Jellio coal. B. K. & W. H. Wearen.

EVERYBODY.—A lady's silk umbrella with crooked oxidized silver handle. Holder will leave at W. B. McRoberts' drug store.

The marshal got wind of a regular take-out gambling establishment here, but its proprietor caught on and lit out before he was himself caught.

The K. C. will run another cheap excursion to the Boating Camp Meeting next Sunday, leaving Rowland at 5:30 A. M. and returning from the grounds at 4 P. M.

There are over 300 guests at Crab Orchard and still they come. The season is now at its height and everything there, especially the scores of pretty girls, is exceedingly lovely.

A SPECIAL excursion train will pass here at 12:20 P. M., on the 25th, to carry delegates to the State Sunday School convention at Middlesboro, to be held Aug. 25 to 27. Fare for round-trip $4.

Lost.—At the Danville fair a gold hunting, key-winding watch, No. 403726 of the Waltham make. Letters "J. E. R." on case. Liberal reward will be given for its return to me, J. E. Bruce.

POLICEMAN WATSON arrested Hugh Hays and Mollie Brooks for drunkenness Saturday night and lodged them in jail. Yesterday they were tried before Judge Carson and fined $10 and $5 respectively, which they didn't pay and were remanded to the custody of the jailer.

A. T. NUNNELLY made a good thing out of the horse-feed, baggage and amusement privileges at the Danville Fair, but came near having the town authorities take his profits away by dining him for running his 'lans without a license. He succeeded in blinding them, however, and getting home with his linc.

SHOOT.—Squire E. B. Caldwell, Jr., of Waynesburg, tells us that Chero Singleton shot Dutch Cooch, son of Lewis G. Cooch, in the local smidaw, producing a serious wound. The shooting occurred at Cooch's house and was the result of a quarrel while they were drinking together. Singleton is under arrest.

Is the county court yesterday several aged and infirm persons were relieved of poll tax and several others erroneously assessed were allowed credits. T. M. Pennington qualified as justice of the peace, and Mrs. Margaret Lischer was permitted to resume her former name of Miller. The docket being cleared Judge Vernon responded to a dispatch to come to Pineville to relate some evidence in the Gen. Sowers' murder trial and left on the 2 o'clock train.

The Miller Mills was not sold at auction yesterday as advertised, but changed hands to some extent, at an advance of 25 per cent, making the price $12,500. Dr. J. K. VanArsdale and J. W. Hayden sold out and E. Reid, S. H. Baughman, S. T. Harris, Dr. S. G. Hocker and Adam Pence now own it in equal proportion. Dr. VanArsdale will continue to superintend it for the present. Dr. S. G. Hocker was elected president.

GRAND FOR TUES.—Mr. T. S. Benson, who was up from Casey yesterday, says the citizens of that county, which is under the local option law, were to meet the county judge at Yosemite yesterday to take steps to drive whisky-sellers from there either into the jail or from the country. There are five places in that little town where whisky can be bought and it is hoped the good people will be able to put a stop to the illegal traffic even if they have to shut off somebody's wind.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. A. S. Moffitt is assisting Rev. Alex. Henry in a meeting at Beattyville.
—The McKinney Baptists have called Rev. J. H. Rife to the pastorate there.
—The Reporter says Elder O. S. Lucas, of Massville, is conducting an interesting revival at the Somerset Christian church, with Miss Ellen Ballou as organist.

—The Census Bureau reports that there are 8,250,415 Catholics in the United States; that they have 10,291 organized places for worship, and the value of the church property is $118,381,516. Kentucky has 122 organizations, 186 churches, communicants 92,504, and church property valued at $1,809,550.

—The first camp-meeting was held in July, 1800, nearly a century ago, on Gasper river, Logan county, Ky., and resulted in 45 conversions. Twenty-five thousand people attended a camp-meeting near Paris, and from the year 1825 to 1829 every summer the population of the whole State of Kentucky went to camp-meeting.—Ex.

—Rev. Mark Collis continues to present the truths of the Bible in a most earnest and convincing manner at the Christian church and souls are being brought to Christ under his ministrations. His sermon Sunday morning on Christian Union was perhaps the best of an unusually fine series and was listened to by a vast audience, which taxed the capacity of the church and rendered extra seats necessary. There have been 4 additions to date. Preaching morning and evening till further notice. Go and it will do you good.

—R. H. Bronaght shipped to Cincinnati a car-load of butcher stuff for which paid 2 to 2 1/2 cents.
